CONCERNING THE HOLY SACRIFICE OF THE MASS - - (Three Parts) - - Part III

Communion follows the Consecration, for throughout the Universe, the sacrament follows the sacrifice. Before the food we eat can become the sacrament which nourishes us, it must first be sacrificed, that is, plucked up from its roots, and then admitted to the knife and the purging fire. By receiving Holy Communion after the Sacrifice of the Mass, we come to realize, in the truest sense of the word, that we live by what we slay. For Christ on the Cross is the victim slain by our sins. Through His merciful power we live by His death. In Holy Communion the celebrant and the people have consumed the Divine Victim offered to God in sacrifice. And thus it is now completed, for Christ, the Light of the World, has been sacrificed. Because of His Sacrifice we have life in us.

1. Next Sunday - August 31, 1986 is the last Sunday of the month. Therefore, there will be Benedictine of the Most Blessed Sacrament after the 9:30 A.M. Mass at St. Pius V Chapel.
2. The charitable prayers of all are asked for the soul of Father James Morrison, O.S.B. who died August 15, 1986
3. The charitable prayers of all are asked for the welfare of Father Paschal Ferlisi, O.S.B. who is very sick.
4. Confessions are heard before each Mass.
5. Every precaution must be taken lest we become so taken by the theater of the Mass that we forget all about the theology of the Mass.
6. We can know the true meaning of the Bible from the teaching authority of the Roman Catholic Church, which has received from Jesus Christ the right and the duty to teach and to explain all that God has revealed.
7. No human being on earth has the right - nor is free - to teach in the name of the Roman Catholic Church, any doctrine which is contrary to the official teaching of that Church. If one professes to be Catholic, then such a one must believe and teach only that which the Catholic Church believes and teaches. Dissent from the true doctrine of the Church is very wrong.
