Weekly Bulletin #24

"In a world like the West, where money and wealth are the measure of all things, and where the model of the free market imposes its implacable laws on every aspect of life, authentic Catholic ethics now appears to many like an alien body from times long past, as a kind of meteorite which is in opposition, not only to the concrete habits of life, but also to the way of thinking underlying them. Economic LIBERALISM creates its exact counterpart, PERMISSIVISM, on the MORAL plane. Accordingly, it becomes difficult, if not altogether impossible, to present Catholic morality as reasonable. It is too distant from what is considered to be obvious, as normal by the majority of persons, conditioned by the dominant culture with which not a few 'Catholic' moralists have aligned themselves as influential supporters."

Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger
"The Ratzinger Report"

(Cardinal Ratzinger is the Prefect of the Sacred Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith.)

1. Tuesday, February 3, 1987 was the Feast of St. Blaise. The Blessing of Throats will take place on Sunday, February 8, 1987.
St. Blaise was a Bishop and a Martyr (died 316 A.D.) He was a physician. He became known - far and wide - for his miraculous cures, and he is still invoked for protection against diseases of the throat.
2. Tuesday, February 10, 1987 is the Feast of St. Scholastica. She was the twin sister of St. Benedict, and she founded the Order of Benedictine Nuns.
3. Saturday, February 14, 1987 is the Feast of St. Valentine. Valentine was a pious priest in Rome, and boldly ministered to the early martyrs. He scorned the tempting offers of the pagan prefect for which he was martyred on February 14, about the year 270.
4. Confessions are heard before each of the Masses.
5. (From the REMNANT - 1/31/87) "We've been told that a special commission of Cardinals has been, or will be soon, meeting to discuss possibilities for lifting the present restrictions on the Tridentine Mass indult of 1984. . . . 'God willing, this may be the year we get the Tridentine Mass back again!' Let's hope and pray that this be so!"
