Weekly Bulletin #26

Sanctity is possible for anyone to attain no matter what their calling in life. God sanctifies souls in the daily and hourly sacrifices required by their station in life. God does not expect us to punish our bodies, to crucify our flesh, in order to become saints. But sweetly He would lead us to holiness by our constant faithfulness to our daily duty, duty accepted, duty done for His sake. To endure is to adore. One will become a saint by complying exactly with his daily duties.

1. NOTE WELL: Sunday, March 1, 1987 is the First Sunday of March - - (and is QUINQUAGESIMA SUNDAY). Therefore, there will be no 9:30 A.M. Mass at St. Pius Chapel, and no 12:30 Mass at St. Francis Chapel.
