THE FIFTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
 September 20, 1987 - - Green

Weekly Bulletin #49

Faith is not only the principle of hope and charity, but is also the source of all the other Christian virtues, such as humility, patience, and chastity, which without faith would be unknown upon earth. It is faith which germinates them in the souls of the faithful, and which nourishes, develops, and preserves them. The more lively faith is, the more ardent are the other virtues, and the more zeal and generosity we show in offering to God all the sacrifices He requires of us. With faith, we triumph over the most violent passions and the most terrible temptations; we keep away from the most alluring occasions of sin, and overcome the greatest obstacles. Without faith, we flinch before the least privation and the least inconvenience or difficulty; we fulfill no duty with a courageous and constant fidelity; we live in sinful indifference.

1. Tomorrow, Monday is the feast of St. Matthew, the Apostle.
2. In order to exist, each chapel has the heavy burden of COST AND EXPENSE. Therefore, each member is kindly asked to help in this area, and maintain proper contributions that will help meet daily costs. Everyone is asked to SACRIFICE JUST A LITTLE FOR THE WORK THAT GOD HAS PLACED ON OUR SHOULDERS. The situation is grave, and the perpetuation of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass depends on the effort that everyone puts forth.
3. A very beautiful hand-made Christmas Tree skirt will be raffled off on Sunday, December 6th. The proceeds of the raffle go to help support Christ the King Priory. The Tree skirt has been made by Carol Veigl. Tickets will be available during this week.
4. The 1988 Calendar orders will very soon be taken.
5. To Celebrate the Tenth Anniversary of St. Pius V Chapel, a chapel picnic is being planned.
6. Confessions are heard before every Mass on Sunday.
7. MASSES FOR THE WEEK:
