FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT - LAETARE SUNDAY Weekly Bulletin #68
 March 13, 1988 - - ROSE

The followers of Christ, all who wish to walk in His footsteps and press towards the goal of sanctity, must cultivate the SAME attitude towards life that HE had. They must be prepared to face the tasks that PROVIDENCE ASSIGNS TO THEM regardless of success or failure. If they shrink from the work God imposes on them, and take up only that in which they foresee success, in order to enjoy the satisfaction of feeling themselves efficient, and being thought so by others, they miss the whole meaning and purpose of life, and they will arrive at old age with empty hands. Our existence here, with its work, is given to us by God to be used for the TRANSFORMING OF OUR SOULS, and not for the flattering of our desire for human achievement. Life's purpose is to purify us, not gratify us. It is not a theatre where we are called upon to play a brilliant part with a view to gaining the applause of the audience, but a process, by which our souls are to be made strong with the strength of supernatural life!!
