Weekly Bulletin #79

Many years ago Pope Pius XII said that a great tragedy of his day was tha the world had lost its sense of venial sin. In our day a much greater tragedy has taken place. The people have lost their sense of ALL SIN, mortal as well as venial. Surely this is true of multitudes of people to whom, from all appearance, sin has no meaning at all. Although they may profess some kind of belief in God, the chances are that He is for them little more than an understanding friend who at least tolerates just about anything and who certainly will not one day hold them to any strict account for the manner in which they live. The absence of all sense of sin among untold numbers of people is manifest in the rampant spirit of moral permissiveness that currently pervades th world, especially the western culture, and pervades our people and contaminate them like a deadly virus or satanic plague. God and His moral law are abandoned and secular humanism, which is essentially a philosophy of atheism, has become the prevailing "religion" of our day. The Almighty has been DETHRONED and MAN has become a god unto himself. HAS OUR CHURCH HAD ANY DOING IN ALL OF
