THE NINTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
July 24, 1988 - - - Green

Weekly Bulletin #83

When men, moved by grace, turn from the ordinary routine life - the good life - and resolve to give themselves wholly to God, they are prone to judge that all difficulties are overcome after the initial act of surrender to the Will of God and renouncement of creatures has been made. They think that henceforth life will be a smooth, tranquil development of the life of grace in their souls. And they expect God so to arrange life that no harsh and distracting conditions will intervene to complicate and disturb the soul's converse with Himself. The incident of the Magi in the Gospel Story, teaches that hardship, anxiety, pain and harsh circumstance must always prepare the way for the discovery of the child in its Mother's arms. We do not find John the Baptist or even Jesus Christ Himself in any easy circumstances - - ever. The Child of Mary, many years later, warned His hearers of this, saying: "But what went you out to see? a man clothed in soft garments? Behold they that are clothed in soft garments are in the houses of kings."

1. Monday: July 25 is the Feast of St. James the Greater - Apostle.
2. Tuesday: July 26 is the Feast of St. Anne - Mother of the Blessed Mother.
2. A very good quotation by Cardinal de Retz: "Nothing sways the stupid more than arguments they cant't understand."
This is especially evident when arguments concerning the Holy Sacrifice of our Mass are in progress!
3. Confessions are heard before Mass.
4. Please pray for Good Vocations to Christ the King Priory.
5. Please pray for the success of the Fund Raising Efforts of Christ the King Priory.
6. Please pray for the successful establishment of the Latin Rite in the Roman Church, and that it be done in peace and in a spirit of harmony. Let us hope that those who do not understand, will be given the spirit of Understanding.
7. MASSES FOR THE WEEK:
