THE FOURTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST Weekly Bulletin # 88
 August 28, 1988 - - Green

Situation ethics has become the sole determining factor for man as to what is right or what is wrong. Opinion polls make things right or wrong. But situation ethics has as its norms those of expediency or feeling and is a total denial of the moral law of God. With the "new morality" (THE NEW AGE MOVEMENT) anything goes, the sky is the limit and almost nothing is sacred. If an action, whatever it may be, is the practical thing to do or makes one FEEL good, then one should BY ALL MEANS to it and have NO QUALMS of conscience about it. Never mind the outdated moral law of God! Man has AT LAST COME OF AGE AND NOW MAKES HIS OWN RULES!! Man has come to the conclusion that he cannot, OR WILL NOT! change back, ---so---GOD WILL HAVE TO CHANGE HIS WAYS in order that He (God) can accomodate Himself to the ways of man. So prevalent, so rampant among people is the commission of sin today that it is not only a WAY OF LIFE for countless individuals but is even more or less taken for granted by many OTHERWISE GOOD PEOPLE whose minds and consciences have been warped by their constant exposure to immorality.
