THE TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
 October 9, 1988 - - - Green

Weekly Bulletin #92
 October 9, 1988 - - - Green

The Catholic Church has always first and foremost spoken of the Mass as a "sacrifice." In fact, it is infallible teaching that Christ left a visible Sacrifice to His Church "in which that bloody sacrifice which was once offered on the Cross should be made present." (Council of Trent)

This doctrine is wonderfully and precisely expressed in the traditional Latin Mass. And down through the centuries the Church closely guarded the text of the Mass to make sure that NOTHING would find its way into the Missal which compromised this doctrine. She knew that the way you pray shows what you believe. Pope Pius XII expressed this principle in his Encyclical on the Liturgy: The worship she (the Church) offers to God, All Good and Great, is a continuous profession of the Catholic Faith. . . . In the Sacred Liturgy, we profess the Catholic Faith explicitly and openly."

1. The recent Bake Sale, which was for the benefit of the Priory Building Fund, was a good success. The First time effort netted: $206.85. We are most grateful for this, but with most gratitude going to Mrs. Paul Drippe who directed the entire affair, and to Mrs. Gertrude Veigl and Mrs. Margaret Armin who were very generous with their time and assistance. Many thanks to all who donated items for the sale.
2. Due to particular circumstances, there will be no special celebration for the Feast of Christ the King this year. It will be a day of special prayer, however.
3. ALL SOULS DAY ENVELOPES now available. Please pray for the Souls of your departed loved ones. Do not forget the dead. The envelopes should be returned BEFORE November 1, so that they can be placed on the Altar, where they will remain, for the entire coming year - NEAR THE TABERNACLE.
4. ORDERS FOR 1989 CALENDARS SHOULD BE TAKEN NOW. In Birmingham notify Helen McMahan. In Cullman notify Carol Veigl or Colleen Drippe. The price for the new calendars is not yet established.
5. Please pray for good, holy and stable vocations to Christ the King Priory.
6. Please pray for the welfare of the Church of Jesus Christ.
7. Confessions are heard before masses on Sunday.
