

to move about and work with an untiring youthfulness that defies the understanding. There is something eternal about it.

Good priests, holy priests, sober priests, we salute you. We give you the best of our humble prayers. In return, we ask you to place your priestly blessing upon us as we, too, labor in the hidden recesses of the vineyard.

HOLY MEN OF GOD — AD MULTOS ANNOS!

In the interest of justice, truth and fairness, we, the Monks of Christ the King Abbey, suggest that the students of schism and excommunication direct their attention to the plight of ALL traditional priests and people and not just to some of them! □
