The Rosary

The Month of May is soon to arrive. May is the month that is especially dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of Jesus Christ. Therefore, it is only fitting that those prayers which give honor the Blessed Virgin should be central in the prayer life of those who love her. Of all the prayers that honor her best, the Rosary holds the first place. The Rosary is not an official public prayer of the church, but it is a most important private prayer, and should be recited daily throughout the year. It should not be omitted. During May it is a must. In its idea, the Rosary is an expansion of the Angelus. The Angelus is the beautiful prayer which is said in the morning, at high noon and in the evening. Beginning with the Annunciation the Rosary makes its way through the central mysteries of the Redemption, remaining all the time
