

Our new lovely statue of St. Michael (yet without his wings) is a creation of David Rodriguez. David was a guest of the Abbey and helped in the placement of the statue.

OF THE MORAL LIFE

The moral life as a whole is rooted in the life shared directly with God, the life of faith, hope and love. And by faith we are led, not against reason but beyond reason, to the knowledge of God in Himself and therefore of ourselves. By hope we are kept young of heart; for it teaches us to trust in God, to work with all our energy but to leave the future to Him; it gives us poverty of spirit and so saves us from solicitude. And by love we are not told about God, we are brought to Him; we are brought down into the depths of the soul to become one with Him.
