

The mailing of the SPECULUM is quite a large operation, and it requires the help of every available person.

One of our photogenic ducks. Dogs and coyotes prevent any overpopulation in our lake. Have you ever heard a pack of coyotes howl in the middle of the night? Truly something.

Father Michael, O.S.B. conducting his never ending war with our fire ants. When disturbed in the large mounds, these ants are full of fire.

