

Notes

Summer time, and the canning season has begun. Father Prior is busy with the squash and the tomatoes and all the other vegetables from our own garden and from the gardens of those around us who keep us supplied with everything under the sun. God bless them every one!!!

Once again, we were honored to receive Bishop Robert McKenna, O.P. who came down for the diaconate ordinations of Frater Francis and Frater Paul. We were happy to see that the Bishop looked so well.

The weather has been most unusual this Spring. Rain, almost every day for weeks and unusually cool temperatures. Storms, too, storms lasting for hours, at times. Twice, one night, we had to scurry to the basement. Frater Paul has had to work between rain drops in order to mow the lawn, which, due to the rains, is a real problem.
