

!All Praise to Jesus Christ Our King!

THE CENTRAL MOMENT He is Priest - FOREVER

Let it be the prayer of God's holy people, whose will is good, that as Francis Nordmann raises his consecrated hands, the grace of God will rush forth from them to enlighten the souls of the elect and the souls of them that sit in darknes and in the shadow of death. Let the prayer of the people be that the priesthood of this man shall be, throughout the days of his life, a pillar of strength to those who look to him for strength and grace.

Let him however, who places anathema on this action which we have performed today take heed: let him consider in his heart from whence his anathema comes! Let him consider, also, the gravity of the obligation, on the part of man, to maintain in perpetuity Christ's Kingdom on Earth.

Once again, in the Monastery of Christ the King in Cullman, Alabama, on the Twenty-Second day of October in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety-Seven, in times so troubled that men give small consideration to the existence of a Divine Creator God and have no understanding of the purpose of Life on earth, Robert McKenna, of the Order of Preachers, - Bishop -, gave witness to the unchangeableness of Truth, the eternal priesthood, and the Creator's purpose in the creation of Man, and he placed his consecrated hands upon the head of Francis Gregory Nordmann, of the Order of Saint Benedict, and the flow of Christ's Grace went out from him and went into the soul of this man and he became priest—Priest in the unbroken succession of the Sacred Order of Melchiesedech.

Let it be the prayer of God's holy people, whose will is good, that as Francis Nordmann raises his consecrated
