

We pray for many, many years of beautiful happiness for this good gentleman. He is presently a Deacon.

The Summer chores continue in spite of the heat, the wind and the weather. No one can doubt that the weather has changed radically in the past few years. Grass mowing is for us a major effort, and it continues all Summer long. Our vegetables are coming in and the Monks have been very busy canning and freezing them.

Reverend Mister John Schreurs visited the Monastery once again, recently, and spent time living the life of the monks, joining them in their prayers and good works. Reverend Schreurs, at the beautiful age of eighty-eight is to be ordained a priest. This has been his dream all of his life long. Now, at last this dream of his is to be fulfilled.

While you are making corrections, please check your address book and remove our very old P.O. Box number of 303, and in its place write our present P.O. Box number 1616.

Well, the Summer is well spent, and it seems that all of our hopes to attract Purple Marlins are shattered, at least for this year. One hermit bird did make an appearance and remained here for several days. He built nests in every house. Finally he gave up and we see him no more. As it stands at the present moment, all of the houses are up for rent. Maybe next year.

The Convent has had a major face lift, and it looks very good, indeed. A leaky roof has been replaced, and the entire building has been given new vinyl siding. Both of these jobs were badly needed. We sincerely thank everyone who has contributed to the welfare of the Convent. We live in hope that some day soon we will have a good and proper place for the Sisters.
