

NOVITIATE

SEPTEMBER 27, 1992

MR. DAVID O. KLING — FRATER WOLFGANG, O.S.B.
MR. DOUGLAS MAY — FRATER PAUL, O.S.B.

CONDITIONS, the mind becomes unfit for contemplation. It falls into division because it has TO CHOOSE BETWEEN ITS OWN SOLICITUDES AND THE WILL OF THE SUPERIOR. It has reserved to itself a whole useless field of interior activity (that of JUDGING all the commands that come to it) and this will inevitably interfere with contemplation. But work does not