

But why are we here? Why are the Monks of Christ the King Monastery and the Nuns of St. Joseph Convent here? We are here to help souls who are dying the slow death of religious starvation. We are here to lead good, holy and trusting souls through the dangerous maze of moral confusion and religious double-talk whilst the dark cloud of unknowing rests heavily upon the hearts and minds of all mankind. It is our hope and prayer that we will always be able to have some word of comfort and consolation for those who seek help from us in their unbelief and sorrow.

Please – do not forget to pray for us!

We take this opportunity remind everyone that the 6:00 A.M. Mass every Sunday is offered for the welfare of all of our beloved friends and benefactors; this, in addition to the prayers and good works the Monks and Nuns offer God each day.

Also, each year, on the annual feast day observance of the various Chapel Saints, a Mass will be offered for the welfare of the Donor of that particular Chapel.

GOD BLESS YOU ONE AND ALL!

JOHN SCHREURS – Deacon since 1939 – 59 years of unbelievable hardships and journeys. No attempt is being made here to speak of the ODYSSEY of this good man. At any rate – finally, after 59 years the dream of this man was realized on October 7, 1998, when he was ordained Priest by the Most Reverend Robert McKenna, O.P. in the Abbey Church of Christ the King Abbey. Is it foolishness to ordain a man at the age of 88? No!

Even if a man live to offer but one Mass in his entire life – kings have never done better! The king has never been able to reach up into the highest heavens and bring down the God of all Creation and place Him in a piece of bread. The Priest does more than God, actually, when he changes the bread into Body!

Father Schreurs will live in Phoenix.
