

The Ceremony of the Blessing

Epiphany Chalk is used to write the Inscription over all the doors of one's house. Soft chalk of any color is best for writing on varnished surfaces. A priest should bless the chalk on Epiphany Day using the following Blessing which is taken from the Roman Ritual.

- V. Our help is in the name of the Lord.
R. Who made heaven and earth.
V. The Lord be with you
R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray

O Lord God, bless † this chalk which Thou hast created, that it may be helpful to mankind; and grant that through the invocation of Thy most Holy Name all those who use this chalk or with it write over the doors of their houses the names of Thy Saints, Gaspar, Melchior, and Balthazar, may by their merits and intercession receive health of body and protection of soul. Through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

Later, that day (or any day within the Octave of the Feast of the Epiphany) at home, the ceremony is completed by a priest, or the father, or senior member of the family. The prayer is said once and at the main entrance of the house. All the family members should be present, and should accompany the priest or the father of the family as he goes from door to door – everyone keeping a respectful silence – or better, reciting the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary.

Let us Pray

Hear us, O Holy Lord, Father Almighty, Eternal God, and send Thy Holy Angel from Heaven to watch over, cherish, protect, be with, and defend all who live in my house. I call upon Your Saints, Gaspar, Melchior, and Balthazar, to protect my family and my home from every harm and danger, and I place the marks of their holy names over the doors of my home to remain there as a constant reminder to us and to all who enter here that my house is truly a house of the Lord.

O God (as I set foot into the beginning of the Third Millennium), make the door of my house the gateway to Thy Eternal Kingdom. I ask these things in the Name of Jesus Christ Thy Son.

R. Amen.
