

For God Alone . . .

... when we offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass

... when we adore the
Most Blessed Sacrament

Of Faith

We may have to stand by and see our hopes disappointed, our plans reversed, our values devalued, and our good intentions misunderstood. We may be let down, disedified, passed over, completely ignored, pushed aside, but none of this matters in the least. Our main purpose must be to love God, and the love of God is the only thing that counts. For the rest, we must make acts of Faith - - loving, so far as we can, the instruments of our frustration and disappointment and worry. Faith is seeing the Most Holy Will of God unfolding in mysterious ways.

The demands of faith, and perseverance in the faith, are the greatest demands that can be made of the soul at any stage of the spiritual life:

IT IS THE SPIRITUAL LIFE.
