

With much care, the wood was cut into many sizes and shapes and designs. It was carved and formed and fitted and all the rest. Small inlaid Benedictine Crosses, made of black walnut wood were fitted into place. Then, the best part started - it all began to come together, little by little, bit by bit, and piece by piece.

Monks, in will rement ones - both	their dai nber you living an	ly praye and you d depart	rs and war dear love ted.

Please list here your very special INTEN-TIONS for which you wish our prayers and good works (confidential information) and return to the Abbey BEFORE