

Even though a Queen – a Queen above every queen ever known – more importantly, she remains a Mother – our Mother – a Mother more beautiful and loving than any mother that has ever been.

There would be much more holiness, as there would also be much more happiness and peace, if Mary’s Christian and Catholic sons, and Mary’s Christian and Catholic daughters were to comprehend and strive to follow and to live by her simple yet profound example! □

The Corpus Christi Procession this year was most wonderful, and the very long procession of people, we hope, gave our Blessed Lord due honor and glory

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

“For one can probably – or rather, certainly – do more to convert the world by keeping very close to God, and growing in union with Him, than by any outside work; though it seems difficult to believe sometimes. It is really best to preach a continual mission to oneself than an occasional one to others! And it is not selfishness for our own soul; for if God wants souls, He first wants mine from me, and until I have given it to Him entirely without any reserve, I have plenty to do for Him, without saving others’ souls.” (Abbot John Chapman, OSB) □
