

A Thought to Remember

For a man's merits are not measured by many visions or consolations, or by knowledge of the Scriptures, or by his being in a higher position than others, but by the truth of his humility, by his capacity for divine charity, by his constancy in seeking purely and entirely the honor of God, by his disregard of and positive contempt of self, and more, by preferring to be despised and humiliated rather than honored by others.

(Imitation of Christ)

More Maintenance

Please list here your very special INTENTIONS for which you wish our prayers and good works (confidential information) and return to the Abbey BEFORE FEBRUARY 1, 2011. This paper will be kept on the High Altar next to the Tabernacle during Lent and Paschal Time. The Monks, in their daily prayer and work, will remember you and your dear loved ones - both living and departed.

PLEASE CUT ON THE DOTTED LINE AND RETURN

