

The Holy Rule of St Benedict focuses attention upon its true object which is not so much the love of penance itself as the love of Christ which forces us to penance.

Even so, the Holy Rule focuses our love not so much on the totality of the mosaic of our liturgical life. Rather, the Rule focuses our love and attention on each piece of the total mosaic, with each piece reflecting the simplicity and the holiness and the beauty of the poverty of Christ, and thus more clearly forces us to the very door of the Nazareth House where is found the poverty and humility of Christ.
