

Man's Constant Vocation

Love is man's first and constant vocation. Love is the summary of the whole Bible. Love is the secret of the saints, the necessary way to God. It is the means to reveal God's heart to other men. But the beauty of God's love must show itself fresh and new in every Christian. For beauty, to delight and attract, must be fresh as the morning. Every deed of vital love, performed by us in our personality which nature and grace have fashioned, is like the morning of time itself.

"God is love" (1 John 4:8) in its mysterious fullness and infinite freshness. Utterly King and Lord, He unites the baptized of every nation in the one Mystical Body of Christ, by the one Holy Spirit, under the one Mother Mary.

Working on maintenance: our ever present job

Indeed, each new day presents us with new dangers, new worries, new concerns, new fears new agitations. In spite of all that however, we must never - ever - give in to discouragement. Those of us, who are faithful and honest and loving children of our most loving Father, Jesus Christ, have nothing to really fear, provided we are faithful to our life of prayer and love. If we are weak in prayer, let us quickly and resolutely turn directly to our Divine Father, and with prayer as our intention beg His help and protection and safety. We must be people of prayer. As long as we pray, we will have hope. □
