

“We sit by and watch the barbarian, we tolerate him; in the long stretches of peace we are not afraid. We are tickled by his irreverence; his cosmic inversion of our old certitudes and our fixed creeds refreshes us; we laugh. But as we laugh we are watched by large and awful faces from beyond; and on those faces there is no smile.” — Hilaire Belloc

Over the past thirty or so years, Catholic Church leadership departed radically from orthodox Catholic doctrine and traditional Catholic observance. As a consequence, many good Catholic priests and people, who continued to remain faithful to the traditions of the Roman Catholic Church, were banished and became exiles because they chose to protect and preserve that which is truly Catholic in the Catholic Church.
